Call for Nominations: Person of the Year and Craftsperson of the Year

The Neographics Committee is now accepting nominations for the 2010 Person of the Year and craftsperson of the year. If someone from your company or someone you know has made significant contributions to the Graphic Arts industry in this region and you think that person should be recognized, we encourage you to submit a nomination. Below is the criteria the Neographics committee follows in choosing the “Person of the Year” and “Craftsperson of the Year”.

Person of the Year Criteria

This award of recognition will be given to an outstanding individual within our industry. Candidates should have made significant contributions to the Graphic Arts Industry in our region. Contributions may be defined as service to the industry through a trade association or organization such as GAA, PIA, PGSF or NAPL, an educational organization, demonstrated leadership, made a personal sacrifice for the betterment of the industry or some other manner that contributed to the entire industry.

Craftsperson of the Year Criteria

Candidates must have worked in the industry for at least 10 years. They must also have a record of accomplishments that demonstrate their contribution toward the company they work for, as well as the respect from their peers, suppliers and clients. Such contributions could be in the form of leadership, dedication, loyalty and skilled craftsmanship, and in many cases, helped a company improve its bottom line. The nominee must currently be working for a member company of GAA.

Please write (approximately 100 words) why you feel this person is qualified. All entries will be reviewed by the committee.

Presentation will be made on Thursday May 6, 2010 at the Neographics® dinner.

All entries must be on company letterhead and signed by an official of the company.

NEOGRAPHICS® 2010 NOMINATION FORM

Nominations should be sent to the Graphic Arts Association, 1210 Northbrook Drive, Suite 250, Trevose, PA 19053, or faxed to 215-396-9890. For further information, call GAA at 215-396-2300. NOMINATION DEADLINE: March 2, 2010.

All entries must be on company letterhead and signed by an official of the company.
